

Climbing the Writing Mountains!

I can join a sentence with words like and / but

I can use some magic words (list 1, some list 2)

I can find and use words within the classroom

I can use capitals and full stops to begin and end sentences

I can use feedback to add or delete punctuation, spelling or words

I can reread what I have written to check it makes sense

I can write simple sentences, questions and views

I can plan for writing using talk or drawing

I can write to record information on different topics

I can write about my experiences and ideas

Spelling

I can form upper and lower case letters correctly

I can add some endings to words (like s,ed,ing)

I can stretch words to identify all the sounds

I know that different letters /blends can create the same sound

I can link sounds with letters and blends and write them

I can break words into syllables