

Climbing the Reading Mountains!

I can identify language features and layouts of common text types

I can interpret some visual language features

I can recognise basic grammatical language features

I can understand figurative and literal meanings

I can find meaning of unknown words using a variety of strategies

I can identify and reflect on an author's use of language and ideas to suit their purpose

I can infer meaning by drawing together a number of ideas

I can locate and summarise ideas by using sub-headings

I can locate and summarise ideas by asking key questions

I can locate and summarise ideas by identifying key words

I can locate and summarise ideas by skimming / scanning

I can monitor and adjust my reading (varying speed, re-reading, locating main points) for harder texts

I can locate, evaluate and integrate information from a small range of texts

I can generate and answer questions to meet specific learning purposes

I can read and understand a range of instructional based texts